

Part Time Officer Position Details

The New Boston Police Department currently has two Part-Time Officer Vacancies.

The positions are considered “Per Diem” by the Town as weekly hours are not guaranteed. However, NBPD provides two (2) shifts each week for its Part Time Officers to fill. In addition, Part Time Officers fill any shift openings caused by Training, Vacations, or Personal Time off requests. Part Time Officers are also permitted to work Private Duty details.

Police Standards and Training allow Part Time Officers to work a maximum of 1300 hours each calendar year.

Candidates will be required to pass a Physical Agility Test (guidelines which are set forth by NHPSTC) and a written examination. Upon successful completion of those phases, the Candidate will be scheduled for an Oral Board interview. The candidate who successfully completes all three phases will be provided a Conditional Offer of Employment. The offer is dependent upon five conditions:

1. Execution of a training agreement and promissory note
2. Background investigation
3. Polygraph examination
4. Medical examination and vision screening
5. Psychological examination and interview

Certified Officers are not required to complete step 1 as costs related to Police Academy training are not required.

Non-Certified Officers will be submitted to the 269th Part-Time Officer Academy scheduled to begin on August 1st, 2015.

Starting pay is dependent upon qualifications.
